

COUNSEL IN TILT IN HUTCHINS CASE

Attorney for Son Wins Point Objecting to Testimony Already Ruled Out.

A sharp tilt between opposing counsel in the Stilson Hutchins will case enlivened the hearing before Justice Anderson in Criminal Court, No. 1, today.

Attorney Hogan, appearing for Walter S. Hutchins, who is seeking a new distribution of the $3,000 estate of the dead newspaper publisher, accused Attorney Perry, of the opposing counsel, of endeavoring to place in the record testimony that Justice Anderson had previously ruled inadmissible.

The evidence concerned statements alleged to have been made by Stilson Hutchins to his servant, Evans. The objection of Attorney Hogan was sustained.

Walter S. Hutchins occupied the stand again today, undergoing a grueling cross-examination by Attorney Perry.
The witness vehemently denied that he had given instructions to restrain his father while the latter had apartments in the Highlands in the fall of 1910. Denial also was made when the witness was asked about the visit of a "doctor with a cork leg" to Stilson Hutchins in the Highlands.

A series of pointed questions were put by Attorney Perry with reference to the visit of Stilson Hutchins to a sanitarium in Burlington, Vt., following a trip Walter Hutchins and his father took from Washington to Boston by boat, and the witness was asked to recite all the circumstances of that journey.

J. H. Fahey Arrives for Meeting of U. S. Chamber

John H. Fahey, of Boston, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, arrived in Washington today to preside over the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber, which will convene here tomorrow.
The board will be in session throughout Thursday.

The most important work of the meeting will be the revision of resolutions which, by action of the third annual meeting, were referred to the board for consideration.

There will also be the fixing of a program for the National Chamber for the greater part of the forthcoming year.
Such a large volume of work has been presented to the chamber for consideration that it will be necessary for the directors to concentrate on the most important matters to the exclusion of others.

The board meetings will be held in the offices of the National Chamber, in the Riggs building, and the first session will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT ATTENDS CROOK FUNERAL

Chief Executive at Services in Memory of Former White House Attache.

The President of the United States today attended the funeral of Col. William H. Crook, the aged attache of the White House, who died last Saturday from pneumonia, after more than fifty years of service as the executive offices.

Accompanied by Secretary to the President Joseph P. Tumulty, Assistant Secretary Rudolph Forster, and Dr.
Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N., President Wilson drove to the late residence of Colonel Crook, 224 Thirtieth street northwest, shortly before 2 o'clock in one of the White House automobiles.
He had already sent a wreath of flowers with a message of sympathy for the relatives of the deceased.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the services at the house were started. The President seemed deeply affected.

Explosion Starts Fire.

Plaster falling from the kitchen ceiling of the home of Margaret Scott, at 106 Seventh street southeast, early today caused the explosion of an oil lamp and resulted in a small fire. The firemen extinguished the blaze after 45 minutes had been done.

G. A. R. COMMITTEES CANVASS DOWNTOWN

Col. R. N. Harper Reports Success in Solicitation of Encampment Funds.

Col. Robert N. Harper, chairman of the finance committee organized in the solicitation of contributions to the fund to defray expenses of the fiftieth anniversary encampment of the G. A. R., today received encouraging reports from the majority of the chairmen of the subcommittees appointed to canvass the business establishments in the downtown sections of Washington.

While the donations pledged are in the majority of instances small, Colonel Harper said that in practically no instance had the persons approached declined to make a contribution. Yesterday the subcommittees spent the greater part of their time in organizing and assigning particular members to particular blocks on the respective streets to be covered by each committee.

Today the members will begin a systematic canvass, and Colonel Harper is confident that the manner in which the public is responding to the appeals will enable a completion of the canvass within a week or ten days.

William F. Gude, chairman of the general committee of 100 that is directing the arrangements for the encampment, today announced the appointment of C. J. Gockeler, secretary of the Board of Trade, as treasurer of the general committee.

Colonel Harper sent out a letter of appeal to persons who might be expected to subscribe to the encampment fund, but who are so situated that they may not be reached by the canvass of the business districts.

PILOTS TO STAY IN SESSION ALL WEEK

Score Attend Annual Convention With Captain Pruett Presiding at the Ebbitt.

Masters and pilots who spend most of their time steering their ships away from the shoals of danger are today in Washington attending the annual convention of the American Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots. The session today, at the New Ebbitt, was devoted to routine business and the reading of annual reports. Capt. John H.
Pruett, of Brooklyn, president of the organization, presided.

The seafaring men expect to continue in session for the rest of the week.
About a score of masters, mates and pilots, from all sections of the country, are here.
